Household Hazardous Waste Day Scheduled for October 12th

Household hazardous waste day will be held at the Francestown Transfer Station on October 12th. The event will begin at 9 a.m. and will run until 12 p.m. (or when the Town reaches its budget limit). Household hazardous waste day gives residents an opportunity to dispose of hazardous items not normally accepted at the Transfer Station. Some items that will be accepted at the household hazardous waste day not normally accepted are: alkyd (oil) based paints and varnishes; flammable liquids and solvents; aerosols; chemical oxidizers, bases and acids; liquid and solid pesticides; asbestos; mercury; and Ni-Cad and alkaline batteries. Please check with a transfer station attendant with any questions.
